Community Service Involvement

- Students graduating from Thai-Chinese International School must complete certain required hours of unpaid community involvement or service.
- This requirement is to encourage students to develop an awareness and understanding of global and civic responsibility and the contribution they can make in supporting and strengthening their communities.
- Volunteering is a great way to get involved with your community and gain valuable experience in areas that interest you.

Examples of Eligible Activities

In the School Community

- Participating on school committees, e.g. School Council representative
- Assisting with sport teams outside of class time
- Assisting on social action/charity projects
- Tutoring younger students

In the Wider Community

- Working with community partners to develop projects that address important social, health and environmental issues
- Volunteering for charity projects
- Volunteering in a local library, hospital etc.....
- Assisting a community team
- Environmental service projects (Soi clean up, tree planting etc..)
- Helping senior citizens
- Tutoring younger students

* Please check with Student Services Counselors if you are unsure if a community service qualifies as one.
